

WORKING OUT

the UC Open Access Policy
(for non-Academic Senate employees)

Scholarly article accepted for publication
(after October 19, 2015)

In an open access journal
or as a paid
OA article

In a subscription
journal

In rare cases, your publisher may request
an embargo* or waiver*.
Get a form at uc-oa.info

Sign agreement with publisher
(no modification or addendum necessary)

With waiver:
Deposit author's final
manuscript via waiver
request form

Deposit a copy of your publication in eScholarship or provide a link to an OA version elsewhere (if available):

uc-oa.info/deposit.

*Definitions

Embargo: The delay of public access to an article until a defined time period has passed after the article is published.

eScholarship: UC's open access repository

Scholarly article: Published research articles, in the broadest sense of the term.

Waiver: The decision to completely opt out of the OA policy for a particular article.

See FAQ at uc-oa.info