Open Access Policy

Dear Colleagues:

Attached is the new University of California Open Access Policy. The purpose of the Policy is to allow authors of scholarly articles to reserve rights under copyright law and to make such scholarship widely and freely available to the public. The Policy governs University authors who are not members of the Academic Senate. There is a separate corresponding policy, approved in July 2013, which governs Academic Senate faculty exclusively. Please see the attached memo from Provost Dorr which provides additional information about this Policy.

The policy will be published online at <http://policy.ucop.edu/> with an effective date of October 23, 2015.

Yours very truly,

Janet Napolitano
President
